Dynamic, resolute and passionate about advice, we have been able to develop expertise in each of our areas of activity. We are committed to a socially responsible approach and strive every day to give more meaning to our profession.

Hexagone Capital is proud to be committed to a sustainable and responsible approach by helping financing Reforest'Action for each of our clients.

Reforest'Action has been working for 10 years to preserve, restore and create forests all over the world. All forestry projects are carefully selected, Based on their specifications. The trees planted are monitored over the long term to ensure their preservation.

Integrity is the cornerstone of our organisation.

Our conviction is that to advise you, we must understand you and better understand the changes in your environment. Our standards of excellence are closely linked to our corporate values:

Comply with regulatory and ethical provisions towards our clients and our professional environment.

Act with loyalty, competence and transparency in the best interests of our clients.

Continuously maintain our skills at a level required by technical, regulatory and economic developments.

Communicate in a complete and appropriate manner all the information that may influence decision-making.

Consult with other professionals when the interests of our clients require it.

Respect professional confidentiality.

Be open to the world and be where you need us

Being open to the world is part of our identity. We are able to provide you with solutions adapted to a changing and complex international environment.

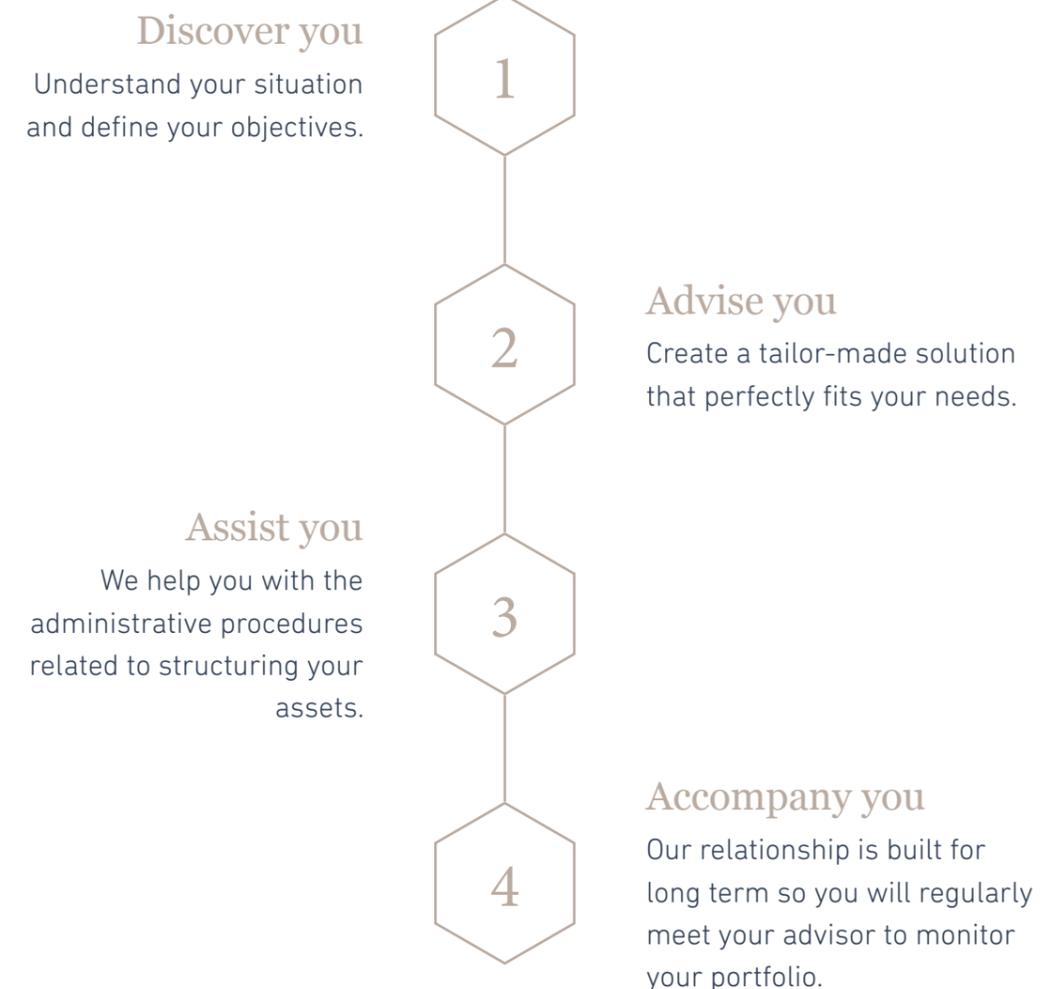

Specialized in supporting Western expatriates, our private advisers benefit from a clear know-how and experience. We also thrive to know your specific expectations in terms of asset organization (global structuring, real estate dealings, use of financial solutions).

Both powerful and on a human scale, our structure allows us to react quickly to defend your interests wherever you need us. Our various locations in strategic financial centers allow us to anticipate your expectations and integrate the internationalization of your assets.

Consulting Process

Your private wealth advisor will take the time to listen to you in complete confidentiality. He will carry out a precise analysis of your familial, professional and patrimonial situation and then seek to understand your expectations, your projects and help you to prioritize them.

Through this deep sense of service and commitment, we want to build a lasting trust relationship with you.
